Happy New Year!

All of us here at the farm wish you lots of happiness, peace and hope for 2010! This year will be our fifth year serving families experiencing cancer. We have been so blessed to meet each one of you and truly love to see your smiles.

Our Christmas caroling event was quite fun—with no snow—and it was a beautiful, cold, starry night. We walked around the neighborhood with jingle bells and all. The big fire and s'mores quickly warmed us up when we got back to the Farm. Our neighbors were quite kind in listening to our slightly off-key singing. Next year we will have to find a music director! Thanks to Ryan for helping out; he was our only musically talented singer.

Bingo is coming in March, and we hope you can join us for this fun family event. Last year we raised over a thousand dollars to help care for and feed the horses. This year has been difficult with very few donations, so we are hoping for a huge Bingo event!

Thanks to Crystal Peaks Youth Ranch in Bend, Oregon for donating extra tack to our farm. We received a huge box right before Christmas that held 6 helmets and a blanket for Violet. Big presents are lovely to receive!

Courage Reins Farm was also fortunate enough to participate in the Childhood Cancer Careline Christmas program for families experiencing cancer. We delivered gifts to our family while they were being treated at Seattle Children's Hospital. Walking through the waiting area and seeing all the kids and families waiting for their appointments, some in masks and most with huge smiles, reminded me of all of you. You are my heroes. Thank you for coming to visit and love the horses.
